Citi wins Clearing and Custody mandate from Taiwan Stock Exchange unit

SINGAPORE - Citi today announced its appointment as the third party clearer and custodian for Global Link Securities Co. Ltd, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Taiwan Stock Exchange (TWSE), on trades and securities executed on Singapore Exchange Securities Trading (SGX-ST). Global Link Securities is SGX-ST's first remote Trading Member.

As the appointed clearing and custodian bank, Citi will clear and settle all transactions executed by Global Link Securities on SGX-ST. Citi will also act as custodian for all SGX-ST listed securities that Global Link Securities holds for their end clients.

Commenting on this mandate David Russell, Head of Securities Services, Asia Pacific, Citi, said "Citi Singapore is pleased to announce this partnership with the Taiwan Stock Exchange. Being one of the first Bank Clearing Member of SGX-ST and the first to migrate an SGX Trading Member to third party clearing, Citi is well positioned to help Global Link Securities meet its strategic objective to connect Taiwanese investors and intermediaries to international markets."
